

Field Day with Peter Andrews

Cottles Bridge Victoria

Meet Peter Andrews (as seen on Australian Story) and see him demonstrate his land repair and regeneration methods using Natural Sequence Farming to manage the land hydrology, vegetation and soil to achieve productive and profitable farming systems as well as natural environments.

Peter's method is tried and proven, as documented by leading scientists and respected organisations including the CSIRO. He has written two books that explain his technique, Back From the Brink and Beyond the Brink, available from ABC bookshops

Date: Sunday February 20, 2011.
